Martin Commercial Properties Transacts Sale for Mercantile Bank

EAST LANSING, MI – March 29, 2022: Mercantile Bank in Alma, Michigan solidified their move to a new location through the sale of their previous building at 311 Woodworth Ave. The community-focused bank won't be going far, with operations moving to a facility directly across the street.

Martin Commercial Properties, a leading privately-owned real estate services and development company, represented Mercantile Bank in the sale of their former branch bank. The purchaser of the two-story glass and brick building is ATD Engineering & Machine of Au Gres, Michigan, via the holding company Minor Investments, LLC.

Martin's Senior Associate and Office Advisor Thomas Jamieson represented Mercantile in the sale of their property.

"We were pleased to help Mercantile Bank complete the loop on their move, and to bring a new business presence to downtown Alma," said Jamieson. "Martin is committed to the prosperity of communities large and small through the various services we offer."
